Cooper Tools Australia announces the release of the new Plumb BARbarian, extendable pry bar

The new BARbarian™ extendable pry bar from Cooper Tools is a strong and versatile demolition tool that rips, pries and pulls. The unique feature is that it is small enough to fit into the tool box but can extend to a full 850mm/34 "when more leverage is needed for those heavy duty jobs.

FULL STRENGTH AT FULL LENGTH! This robust tool meets A.S.M.E specifications and has a static loading strength of 227kg. The tool is double ended with a straight end and a gooseneck on either end with both ends incorporating nail pulling slots.
